During the week her exhibitions will be given at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and 9 o'clock at night. Celebration Planned for April 14 by Demarest of Rutgers College, New Jersey. In the ladies' duckpin tournament the scores were made. The other attractions were generously patronized. Majestic.

Never before has the Majestic Theater had larger audiences than attended the four performances yesterday, under the management's new five-cent day and tencent night policy. And the bill throughout seemed to be thoroughly satisfactory to the applauding crowd. Charles F. Leonard gave a rapid-fire monologue, the Three Cycling Cogswells, a unique bicycle act; Sarah Goodey, well sung vocal selections, and Dow and Dow.

Music served to introduce a great variety of musical instruments and electrical effects in a program from a buzz-saw number to an organ recital. The motion plays Col. John T. Leachman, who guided the
